Schorr Colt Joe Fry Beat Garry Hermann by a Nose in the Ardelle Stakes.

AMPERE WAS WITHDRAWN.

The Calhoun Colt Ran Away Before the Start Lillie Pantland Galloped Away Over Queen Dixon.

Memphis, Tenn., April 7.—The Gaston Hotel Stakes at half mile for 2-year-old colts and geldings furnished a battle royal at Montgomery Park this afternoon between John P. Schorr's Belvidere-Lady Hawkstone colt, Joe Fry, and Jake Marklein's Hermann, imported from England, and Sik Gowen, the former winner by a nose in a terrible drive, all the way through the stretch. Schorr's crack colt, Arden Shreck, was withdrawn during the morning and Silverdale was substituted in his stead.

Joe Fry, the imported favorite, was the Schorr entry, second choice, at 2 and 3. Arden Shreck, who is regarded as one of the best 2-year-olds, carried probably more money than any horse at this meeting. To a false start, Amper was run away, and despite the best efforts of Bert Knapp, a strong jockey, to hold him, the colt ran three-quarters and jumped the fence, unseating Knapp. Judge Reed immediately declared all bets off and permitted Mr. Calhoun to withdraw the favorite from the race.

In the second heat, the Schorr pair were installed even money favorites. To a good start Joe Fry showed in front, with Garry Hermann and Silverdale third. Wilhelm out front Hermann out front the flying leader, and at the head of the stretch was on equal terms with Fry. The two fought Joe Fry winning by a neck. Sari was third, and the weather was delightful and track fast.

The favorites that succeeded in crossing the wire first during the day were Joe Fry, in the stake race, and Bantled in the fifth heat. The weather was delightful and track fast.
